

Sinclair Broadcasting is turning its stations into campaign headquarters for the Bush re-election effort. This cannot be allowed because it is using the public's air waves. They must be forced to show equal coverage of an anti-Bush film.